Windsor Locks High School

Windsor Locks, Connecticut

As the curtain falls, we realize how important Mr. Purinton has been to our success. He has been a patient teacher and has always encouraged us to challenge ourselves and work to our potential. While his dedication in the classroom has revealed his concern for us, his warmth has not been confined only to teaching. Because of his friendship and understanding outside of the classroom, he has been someone we could talk to and has helped guide us through our high school years. He has believed in us and has taught us to believe in ourselves. Therefore, we the Class of 1993, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Carl Purinton.

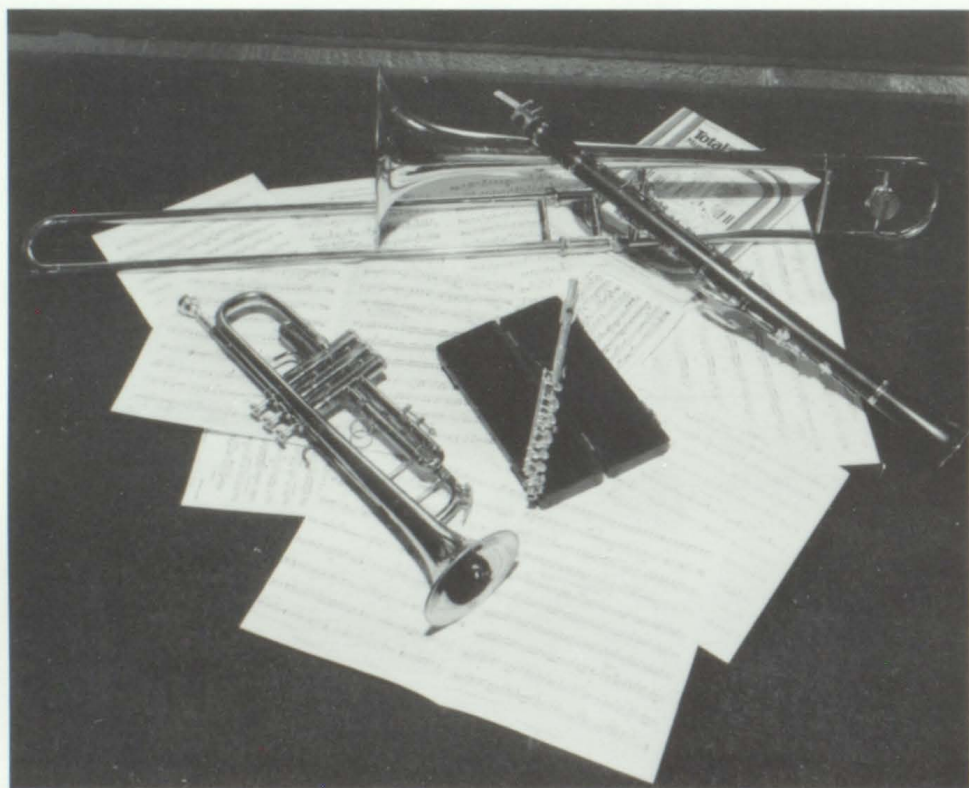

Four years ago, we entered Windsor Locks High School, oblivious to its beat. We were trying so hard to be in step with everyone else that we had no identity of our own. We were groupies, waiting to be discovered.

As sophomores, we found the rhythm of the drums and felt the heat of the stage. We helped make the music but could not find the spotlight. We were roadies, setting up the mics so the world could hear our call.

Finally as juniors we hit the stage. We were reaching for stardom; we were on the brink. We perfected our music, to send it out for all to hear. We were the opening act, ready to break through.

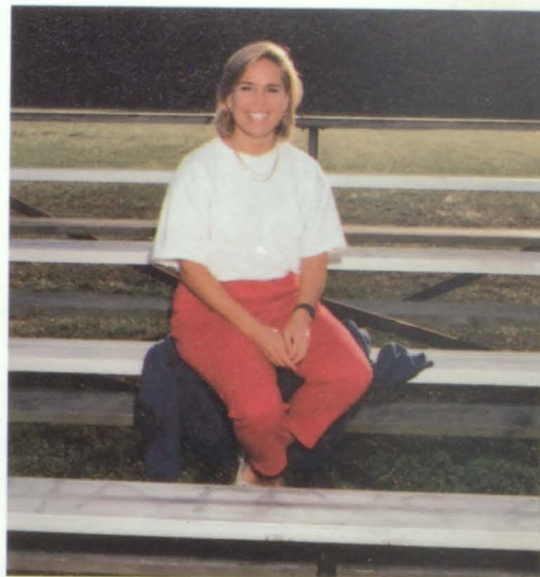

Compliments of W. Quagliavoli, Evergreen Tree Service

At last we have reached our goal; we are seniors! We have toured the world and seen it all. We have finally topped the charts, song after song, hit after hit. Now we are ready to go solo. We look back on our greatest hits, proud of how far we have come and the notes that we have played in the melody of Windsor Locks High.

As you turn the pages, relive the memories of the superstars of our senior class. Please hold your applause as we proudly present the Windsor Locks High School Class of 1993.

[illegible]

The spotlight has begun to fade as the amps are cleared from the stage. Center stage, we feel the emotion; the happiness; the sadness; the nervous anticipation of what lies ahead. So grasping hands we take our final bow. We salute the fans who have supported us and the curtain falls. Standing backstage, we realize this is our last opportunity to stand together as a class. Now we embark towards the future. Ready to go solo, we are ready and eager to stand in our spotlight. We will always remember the pulsing beat we have created together. Our collection of hits has been captured in this yearbook, each cut adding its own special memory. Looking ahead, we are confident each of our greatest hits are yet to come.

As editors of The 1993 Herald, we would like to congratulate each member of our class for their uniqueness and contribution to our class. Congratulations, good luck and best wishes.

What is a Bargain?

Beware of advertisements which claim huge savings on diamonds. If a diamond is sold at a "bargain" price it is usually because it is an inferior gem. Our membership in the American Gem Society is your assurance of honest value. It costs no more and often less to buy your diamond from a reputable firm that cares about you.
